

Study visit to Norway

within the frames of the project NMF/PA20/022 “Cooperation and competence are the key to combat human trafficking effectively. Phase II”

Oslo, 8-10 May 2023

AGENDA

DATE	TIME	EVENT	TOPIC
Monday 8th	6.30 am	Meeting at departures hall at Chopin Airport in Warsaw	IOM staff contact number: +48 606 787 781
	7.45 am	Departure to Oslo
	10.00 am	Arrival in Oslo airport	Transportation to hotel provided by IOM
	10.40 am	Checking in to hotel
	11.30 am	Welcome and Visit Introduction – IOM Oslo rep
	1.00 - 2.30 pm	Labor Inspection Agency Østensjøveien 34, Oslo The role of labor inspection agency in protecting the rights of migrant workers and preventing exploitation in forced labor of migrants in precarious situation. Pål Lund – Senior Advisor: International Cooperation Coordinator	Governmental agency under the Ministry of Labor and Social Inclusion; its representative will discuss the main risks related to migrant forced labor
	2.30 – 3.00 pm	Lunch
	3.00 - 4.00 pm	ROSA (rosa-help.no) Rådhusgata 4. Direct assistance to victims of human trafficking in Norway: its forms, methods and scope. The scale of the trafficking in human beings phenomenon and the main challenges Leila Langdalen Sbai - Secretary General	ROSA is a project that is being carried out by the Secretariat of the Shelter Movement and is financed by the Ministry of Justice and Police. The aim is to coordinate a nationwide service to provide safe places of residence for victims of human trafficking, and to advise women who have been

Study visit to Norway

within the frames of the project NMF/PA20/022 “Cooperation and competence are the key to combat human trafficking effectively. Phase II”

Oslo, 8-10 May 2023

				exploited, staff at crisis centers, and other aid organizations. It offers assistance throughout Norway, 24 hours a day, to victims of trafficking.
	6.00 pm	Dinner		provided
Tuesday 9th	10.00 -11.00 am	Human Trafficking Support Oslo (NAV Grünerløkka) Thorvald Meyers gate 9 0555 OSLO  The Norwegian state system of social support to victims of trafficking in human beings.		NAV Grünerløkka is responsible for supporting victims of trafficking residing in Oslo and provide guidance and advice to all regional NAV offices in Norway.
	12:00 – 1:00 pm	National Police Agency – KRIPOS Brynsalléen 6, 0667 Oslo  The Norwegian state system of social support to victims of trafficking in human beings.  Anja Perminow Straand - State Prosecutor	The Norwegian Directorate for Immigration (UDI) Innspurten 2, Oslo The Norwegian assisted voluntary returns system - main actors, the scope of assistance provided and methods of operation. Exchange of good practices  Vibeke Jørgensen: Head of Return – Norwegian	KRIPOS -police department responsible for investigating THB cases;  The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration UDI is responsible for processing asylum applications from foreign nationals, running of asylum reception centres and managing expulsion cases.

Study visit to Norway

within the frames of the project NMF/PA20/022 “Cooperation and competence are the key to combat human trafficking effectively. Phase II”

Oslo, 8-10 May 2023

			Directorate for Immigration
	1:00 – 1:30 pm	Lunch
	2.00 - 3.30pm	Visit at IOM Norway office The role of IOM Oslo in facilitating access to AVRR services by building capacity of relevant stakeholders and referring potential beneficiaries. Cooperation with Norwegian LEA in the field of mitigating trafficking-related risks Emil Andre Andersen – Deputy Programme Manager, IOM Norway		Presentation on IOM’s role in voluntary return and reintegration mechanism, and counteracting trafficking in human beings
	6.00 pm	Dinner		provided
Wednesday 10 th	10:00 – 12:00	UDI Reception Centre Ringsaker RC Ringsaker Mottakssenter, Bryggevegen 83, 2350 Nes på Hedmark Meeting with the head of the Reception Centre; presentation on the provision of subsistence and stay for persons in the asylum procedure.		Visit at a reception centre for asylum applicants;
	5:00 pm	Departure from Oslo to the airport		Transportation provided by IOM
	7.45 pm	Return flight from Oslo
	10.00 pm	Arrival in Warsaw		